

IFIP IP3 acknowledges an individual or organization that has promoted and demonstrated Professionalism (Professional Practice), has worked as an Ethics Evangelist, and/or has made strides in fostering diversity among ICT practitioners. An individual or organization can be nominated.

The criteria will include:

- 1) Professionalism – demonstrated commitment to all aspects of ICT professional practice:
 - a. Continuous Professional Development
 - b. Service to organisation and broader community
 - c. Trustworthiness
 - d. Accountability
 - e. Pride in the profession and setting a good example.
- 2) Ethics evangelism - in addition to ethical behaviour, takes every opportunity to spread the Ethics message.
- 3) Fosters diversity - works to promote gender, race, and digital equity.

The David O’Leary award includes a cash prize of USD1500, and travel to IFIPs General Assembly to receive the prize (maximum travel allowance is USD 1000). The person who nominates the winner will be rewarded with an Amazon.com gift card to the value of USD100.

A panel of a minimum of three judges from the Global Industry Council will judge the award and make the final decision.

Use this form to submit a nomination to the Award Committee. Anyone may submit a nomination for a person or an organization. Supporting documents may be emailed to ip3awards@gmail.com . Please ensure that the nominee accepts the nomination.

The closing date for the 2025 Award is 31 July 2025. All information is confidential and will only be shared with prior permission.
